About Red Square®

Red Square is known for its creative solutions. We believe in design strength with in the product strength. Thus, revolutionizing and rediscovering the idea of contemporary products we have launched Red Square.

Our Vision

Red Square works with an objective of making gifting simpler, easier and quicker. We practice the working concept of DDP which stands for Design, Develop and Produce. Gifting is very deeply rooted in all the walks of our life, so we have decided to work with the motto of "Gifting made easy".

Our Strength

We have a great infrastructure with skilled in-house graphic designers who yield the best of the designs for the products. Red Square has a huge production capability for manufacturing and developing all these products. We developed cost effective working systems and have been excellent at taking up day to day challenges very effectively and efficiently, thus accomplishing them successfully on time.
